

10 days of Creative Exercises

We might all have to stay home but we won't stop being creative!

Wouldn't it be amazing if we used this time to try something new or do the things we never usually get round to doing?

These activities might help keep your mind busy. You can spend an hour or a day on these things and who knows, they might even inspire you to start a new project for yourself.

Let us know how you get on with these creative exercises or share your experiences on social media

1 Find a song or a piece of music you have never heard before. Imagine it is the theme tune to a film or series.

What would you expect to see in the opening scene?

2 Write a scene between siblings.

3 Find a picture in a magazine or newspaper with a human in it, think about what they are thinking, feeling, saying and doing.

You could use this to start a scene, monologue or short story.

- 4 Write the alphabet down one side of a piece of paper, each letter is the start of a new line, use this as a starting point for a script. It must make sense!

- 5 Find a green object in your house;
- If it had a voice what would it say?
  - If they were human who would they be?
  - Create a character based on the object

(you can do this again with a red, blue, orange object etc...)

- 6 Use this as a first line of a monologue:
"It's not that easy"

7 Call a friend and tell them a story entitled

THE BIGGEST APPLE EVER

Make it as ridiculous as possible.

8 Write a list poem.

Every line must start with “I am...”

You could do another one that starts “I am not...” and another one that starts “I am from...”

9 Learn a new monologue!

10 Write a letter to your 13 year old self
